Contents

Acknowledgments vii

I. Cuba’s Political Role in World Affairs

1. Institutionalization, Political Elites, and Foreign Policies
   Edward Gonzalez 3

2. The Soviet Union in the Cuban-American Conflict
   Cole Blasier 37

3. The Armed Forces and Foreign Relations
   Jorge I. Domínguez 53

4. Revolutionary Solidarity in Angola
   Nelson P. Valdés 87

5. U.S.-Cuban Relations: The Role of Puerto Rico
   Austin Linsley 119

6. Cuba and the English-speaking Caribbean
   Ronald E. Jones 131

7. Cuba and the Nonaligned Movement
   Rozia Levi 147

8. Cuba and the Arab-Israeli Conflict
   Yoram Shapira 153

II. Cuba’s Economic Role in World Affairs

9. The Economy and International Economic Relations
   Carmelo Mesa-Lago 169

10. The Economics of U.S.-Cuban Rapprochement
    Carmelo Mesa-Lago 199

11. COMECON in Cuban Development
    Cole Blasier 225

12. The International Political Economy of Cuban Nickel Development
    Theodore H. Moran 257

13. Sugar and Petroleum in Cuban-Soviet Terms of Trade
    Jorge F. Pérez-López 273
Contents

14. Participation in Multinational Organizations and Programs in the Hemisphere
   Steven L. Reed 297

15. The Transferability of Cuba’s Revolutionary Development Models
   Archibald R. M. Ritter 313

Biographical Notes 337
Index 339