Contents

List of Tables and Figures vii
Preface and Acknowledgments ix

1. The Securitization of Immigration: Multiple Countries, Multiple Dimensions 1
   Ariane Chebel d’Appollonia and Simon Reich

2. Identity Discourse in Western Europe and the United States in the Aftermath of 9/11 23
   Ilya Prizel

3. Religious Legacies and the Politics of Multiculturalism: A Comparative Analysis of Integration Policies in Western Democracies 44
   Michael Minkenberg

4. The Emergence of a Consensus: Global Terrorism, Global Insecurity, and Global Security 67
   Didier Bigo

5. European Security and Counter-Terrorism 95
   Jolyon Howorth

6. Immigration Policy and Reactions to Terrorism after September 11 111
   Martin Schain

   H. Richard Friman
CONTENTS

8. The Security Myth: Punishing Immigrants in the Name of National Security

   Jennifer M. Chacón
   145

9. National Security and Political Asylum

   Elena A. Baylis
   164

10. Immigration Enforcement and Federalism after September 11, 2001

    Anil Kalhan
    181

11. Immigration, Security, and Integration in the European Union

    Ariane Chebel d’Appollonia
    203

12. Muslims and the State in Western Europe

    Jonathan Laurence
    229

13. Dissonance between Discourse and Practice in EU Border Control Enforcement: The Spanish Case

    Francisco Javier Moreno Fuentes
    254

14. The Challenge to Integration in France

    Sylvain Brouard and Vincent Tiberj
    283

15. “Weak Immigrants” in Britain and Italy: Balancing Demands for Better Support versus Tougher Constraints

    Manlio Cinalli
    300

16. Immigration: Tensions, Dilemmas, and Unresolved Questions

    Ariane Chebel d’Appollonia and Simon Reich
    321

Notes
341
Bibliography
417
List of Contributors
461
Index
465