
Contents

	Introduction	xv
	PART I THE MERCANTILIST ERA
I	The Rise of Mercantilism	3
	Background 3
	Attitudes Toward Work and the Laboring Classes 6
	Causes of Poverty 10
	Class Relationships 12
	Mercantilist Labor Policy 13
	Stability and Property 15
2	Economic Assistance Programs of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries	21
	Background 21
	Early Mercantilist Policies 23
3	The American Colonies during the Mercantilist Period	39
	Background 39
	Colonial Assistance Programs 44
4	Significance of the Mercantilist Period	49
	PART II FROM MERCANTILISM TO LAISSEZ-FAIRE
5	The Transition to Laissez-Faire	57
	Social and Economic Trends 58
	Contemporary Ideologies and Social Policy 61
	Poverty and the Lower Classes 87

6	The Reform of the Poor Law	93
	The Ideological Background	93
	The Issues at Stake	98
	Solutions to the Problem of Economic Insecurity	106
7	The American Scene	131
	Trends in American Society	131
	American Social and Economic Thought	137
	Causes of Poverty	144
	Programs of Assistance	147
PART III THE ERA OF LAISSEZ-FAIRE
8	The Foundations of British Policy	157
	Social and Economic Trends	157
	Attitudes Toward Work, the Working Class, and Poverty	161
	The Nature of Society	167
	The New Psychology	169
9	The Major Ideologies	175
	Liberalism	175
	Socialism	184
	Romanticism	192
10	British Welfare Policy	213
	The Right to Support	214
	The Right to Opportunity	225
	The Right to Work	227
	Conclusion	231
11	America in the Nineteenth Century	233
12	Ideologies: The Nature of Man and Society	241
	Romanticism	241
	Social Darwinism	244
	Freedom of Will	248
	Laissez-Faire	250
	Uniformity	262
	Progress	264

13	Labor, The Poor, and Poverty	267
	The Labor Movement in the Nineteenth Century	267
	Attitudes Toward the Poor	269
	Causes of Poverty	273
14	American Economic Security Programs	279
	The Organization of Assistance	279
	Major Issues	284
PART IV TOWARD THE WELFARE STATE
15	Introduction	313
16	Social and Economic Planning	321
	Social Responsibility	321
	Cooperation and Control	339
17	Goals of Social Policy	347
	Stability	348
	Full Employment	349
	Expansion of the Economy	355
	The Elimination of Poverty	358
18	Economic Security Policies and Measures	373
	The Role of Social Income	373
	The Responsibility for Economic Security	381
	The Nature of Economic Security Programs	387
	Conclusion	405
	Notes	411
	Index	451