

Contents

ix	Acknowledgments
xi	Preface A Genealogy through Stories
1	Introduction The Power, Possibility, and Peril in Histories of Literacy
9	Chapter 1 Rhetoric, Race, and Citizenship in the Heart of Virginia
24	Chapter 2 Manufacturing and Responding to White Supremacist Ideology in the “Virginia Way”
57	Chapter 3 “Teaching Must Be Our Way of Demonstrating!”: Institutional Design against White Supremacy
95	Chapter 4 Free School Students Speak
117	Chapter 5 Pomp and Circumstance: The Legacy of the Prince Edward County Free School Association for Contemporary Literacy Theory and Pedagogy
129	Appendix Timeline of Key Local, Regional, and National Events Related to Civil Rights
131	Notes
135	Works Cited
145	Index